Venezia Certosa Marina is a yacht harbour embedded in the park of the Certosa island, adjacent to the historic centre of Venice, at the center of Venice's lagoon.

Its infrastructures and services meet the requirements for a marina resort.

The port obtained the MarRina Excellence certification for the quality of its moorings.

It also was awarded the FEE's Blue Flag for tourist locations, for the low environmental impact of the project.

The park is an excellent location for events of different kind, a place of leisure and entertainment for residents and visitors, a location for culture and sport events; a starting point for excursions in the lagoon; a hub for sustainable tourism and an ideal location for corporate events and team-building activities.

CERTOSA ISLAND: 24 green hectares

At the intersection of the north Laguna nature reserve and the historical city. The Adriatic and St.
Mark's square
are both 10mn away!

An ecological and economical
laboratory created by a public/private partnership between the City of Venice and Vento di Venezia.

FROM A MONASTERY TO A MILITARY BASE...

Certosa has been inhabited since the 12th century. Napoleon changed it to a military base. Today it has become a city park and nautical center.

A long, elegantly set dining table in a rustic brick building. The table is covered with a white tablecloth and is set with white plates, silverware, and various glassware. Tall white candles are placed in ornate holders along the table. The chairs are made of woven wicker. The background features a brick wall and wooden beams, with small candles on the floor for ambient lighting.
